Dear Students,

Athens is getting ready to host the 17th IAAE European Energy Conference seeking to enrich the dialogue on some of the most crucial issues facing the energy community.

We are pleased to announce that, in an effort to disseminate the research work presented at the Conference to as wide an audience as possible, we have secured free attendance places in all our concurrent sessions for the student community, either undergraduate or graduate (on a first-come-first-served basis).

During the three-day Conference, more than 170 distinguished academic speakers and experts in Energy Economics and Research will seek to present the most recent advancements in Energy Economics, deepening the knowledge and understanding of the new reality in these unprecedented challenging energy times.

The sessions' timeline is as follows:

Thursday, September 22, 2022, from 17:00 to 18:30 at the American College of Greece

Friday, September 23, 2022, from 17:30 to 19:00 at the American College of Greece

Saturday, September 24, 2022, from 10:00 to 11:30 at the Alba Graduate Business School

For more information on the concurrent sessions Agenda, click here.

We would like to encourage you to extend the invite to your respective network and make the most of this unique opportunity!

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you at the 17th IAAE European Energy Conference.

Important note:

To secure your place, email g.giannakidou@haee.gr , before September 20, 2020.

The entrance to the Conference venue and the Concurrent sessions halls is allowed only by displaying your Student ID.

Kind regards,

The HAEE Conference Team
