

The Department of Economics announces the offering of the “Altium Training CFA Level I Scholarship” to one of the graduating students or recent graduates of the Department

Scholarship description: The scholarship will cover the fifty percent of the tuition of Level I of the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program at Altium Training for the November 2016 to June 2017 period (exams of June 2017). The scholarship is valid for students who would otherwise cover the tuition fees themselves. For more information about Altium Training and the CFA program you may visit www.altiumtraining.gr

Selection process: The Department will select the student/graduate to get the scholarship based on his/her academic merit.

Interested students are invited to submit their CV by September 30th to the Secretariat under the reference “Altium Training CFA Level I Scholarship”.